

THE REBEKAHS ENTERTAIN

Harmony Hall the Scene of a Pleasant Evening Function.

Pacific Rebekah Lodge No. 1, I. O. O. F., entertained a large number of guests last night at Harmony Hall on King street. The ladies had prettily decorated the hall with flowers and chandeliers being hung with green and lilac and a general festive appearance was given the room by the liberal and artistic distribution of flowers and trailing greens.

At 8 o'clock some 200 guests had assembled and Miss Saxton, Noble Grand of the lodge, welcomed the visitors with a few graceful and cordial words. An enjoyable program followed, each number receiving a demonstration of appreciation. An instrumental duet was executed by the Misses Dee and Mr. E. Weedon gave a vocal number. Mr. Mather Muller followed with a pleasing guitar solo and a piano solo by Mr. Herriek. "Reuben and Rachel," presented by Mrs. Petrie and Mr. Charles Carter, was very acceptable, and a violin solo by Mr. Lenn was very much appreciated. The closing number was "Cousin Ledeiah," sung in chorus by some twenty-five persons.

The conclusion of the program was a signal for social relaxation, and the enjoyment of this was heightened by the arrival from the outer hall, of refreshments, which were served by the ladies of the lodge.

The committee on entertainment, whose arrangements made the affair a very enjoyable one, were Sisters Alice Robinson, Marion Smith, Clara Petril, Emma McKee and Emma Herriek.

NEW SONGS OF HAWAII NEI

De Fries' Metrical Contributions to Last Evening's Concert.

The four new Hawaiian songs, the words and music of which were composed by Mrs. Emma Alexandria Kalaialano, Kihoulaniulamamao, and arranged by Captain Bertram, were greeted with cordial and repeated applause last night by the guests assembled on the lanais and in the parlors of the Hawaiian Hotel. Mrs. de Fries entertained a large number of guests on the large front lanai of the hotel during the concert, refreshments being served and each guest regaled with a lei. Among the guests invited was Queen Liliuokalani, who, however, was not present, having regretted by a party of representatives. Henry Kauaunulawahi de Fries, Mrs. de Fries' husband, assisted in serving the guests.

The four new songs are "Kukilakila," "Kashuula," "Kilolani" and "Liliu," and were very pretty as sung by Mrs. de Fries and Mrs. N. Alapai.

Mrs. de Fries received many compliments and congratulations on her compositions, and the cordial and continued applause with which each was received demonstrated the large audience demonstrated the popularity of those who heard them. The conclusion of "Liholiho" each number of the band was presented by Mrs. de Fries.

Queen street, between Richards and South streets, is receiving considerable attention from the Public Works Department. New curbs are being set in and the street macadamized.

Queen street for the past year has been one of the worst thoroughfares in the business section of the city, and few persons who drove in light buggies, chose that route.

STREET ACCIDENTS.

Representative Beckley's Bicycle is Crushed Under a Wagon.

Representative Fred Beckley had his bicycle crushed yesterday under a wagon driven by one Halvorsen, who is employed at the Iwilei military corral.

The accident was evidently due to the carelessness of Mr. Halvorsen, as he agreed to have the repairs to the wheel made at his expense and also took the wheel to Pearson & Potter's cycery in the wagon. The accident occurred near the postoffice.

The wreck of a light buggy obstructed the sidewalk in front of Vida Villa, King street, early yesterday morning.

The front wheels were damaged, the spokes of one having been entirely ripped out. There was no appearance of there having been a runaway, but it seemed a case of the "one-hoss chaise" over again.

Reception to the Pastor.

The Rev. H. Kihara, pastor of the Japanese Methodist Episcopal Church, who has been a worker among the members of the Japanese colony for the past seven years, will leave in the China on Tuesday next, for the purpose of attending the meeting of the California conference, which will be held at Pacific Grove. After the conference meeting he will go east, and enter the Drew Theological Seminary, where he will complete his course in theology.

Mr. Kihara is highly esteemed by his people and to show their regard there will be held this evening at the church a farewell reception in his honor. The reception will begin at 8 o'clock and will attract all the members of the congregation and many others.
